FOLIO APRIL 16 - APRIL 29

Alfred I. duPont
Radio & Television Award
for 1961

KPFK, the first non-commercial station
ever to win a duPont Award,
was cited for "its effort,
in spite of financial limitations,
to make radio a positive and creative force
in the cultural and intellectual life
of its community, with programs covering
an exceptionally wide spectrum of adult interest,
including music and the fine arts,
political opinion of a maximum diversity,
literature, drama, seminal ideas,
and programs defining and illuminating
the social and economic problems
of ordinary daily living."

We are very proud to announce that KPFK has just received an Alfred I. DuPont Award for Radio and Television, one of the truly major honors granted to American radio and television stations. Each year there are but two such awards to radio and television stations; one to a station in the larger category, and one to a station in the smaller category. The smaller-category award, won by KPFK, is in no sense a runner-up award. It is fully equal to the other, won by commercial television station KING in Seattle.

No non-commercial station has ever before won a DuPont Award. We believe that KPFK, which has previously won an Ohio State Award and a Peabody Award, is the first FM station ever to win all these three major honors.

KPFK, which first took the air less than three years ago, is grateful both to its devoted staff and volunteers who have made possible the winning of these honors, and to a Southern California listening public which has provided the vitally necessary operating revenue. There is a most appreciated stipend of one thousand dollars accompanying the DuPont Award, but the great bulk of our financing, under our Pacifica listener-subscription system of operation, comes from our listeners. We pledge to them the continuance of our policies of free, creative and responsible broadcasting, and we are confident that they will continue to respond in even greater measure in the future to our urgent needs for funds to carry on our work.

Program Talk

about children's programs

At long last the most comprehensible format yet for your program listings — see page 5. Also, please note — no longer "Programs for Children," but simply FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

please

We would like once again to request that no original manuscripts or "master" tapes be sent to KPFK. If you wish to submit a tape or a manuscript or clippings from magazines or newspapers, be certain that you retain your original copy.

Although we will do our best to see that all material submitted is returned, we cannot be held responsible for loss or damage.

VOL. THREE, NO. 20

The PROGRAM FOLIO, a service to KPFF subscribers, is published bi-weekly by KPFF (FM 90.7 mc) which serves Southern California. KPFF broadcasts 17 hours a day of music, drama, public affairs and programs for children. The station promotes discussions of all points of view, but endorses none.

Anyone can listen, but those who want creative and provocative programming support KPFF. The basic annual subscription is $12.00. Contributions are tax-deductible because KPFF is non-profit. Sustaining, $25.00; Contributing, $50.00; Patron, $100.00; Participating, $250.00; Lifetime, $1,000; Student, $5.00 (six months); Introductory, $3.00 (three months). Subscriptions are transferable to KPFA, serving Northern California (2207 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley) and WBAI, serving the New York area (30 E. 39th St., N.Y. 16).

KPFF and these two other listener-subscription stations form Pacifica, a non-profit corporation. KPFF programming has been favorably reviewed by THE SATURDAY REVIEW, THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, THE NATION, THE NEW YORKER, THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR and numerous other publications. KPFF has received a PEABODY, broadcasting's highest award.

KPFF transmits from Mt. Wilson with a power of 75,000 watts. The mailing address is KPFF, Los Angeles 38, California. Studios and offices are located at 3729 Cahuenga Blvd., North Hollywood. TR 7-5583, ST 1-0150.
